

The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the car was the cold. It was a sharp contrast to the warmth of the car.
 I shivered and pulled my coat tighter around me. The air was crisp and clear, and I could see the stars in the night sky.
 It was a beautiful sight, and I felt a sense of peace. I had been so busy lately, and this moment felt like a gift. I took a deep breath and smiled. The night was perfect.

To the Editor of
The School World

Dear Brother Joseph

I am delighted to hear that you have been in the missionary service in the South Sea Islands.

I hope you will find it very interesting.

I am sure you will

be very successful.

I am sure you will

be very successful.

I am sure you will

be very successful.

I am sure you will

be very successful.

I am very glad to hear
 from you and hope you are well. I am feeling better but do not hope to travel with you this time as I am not well enough. I am very much interested in your work and hope you will give me some help.

Yours truly,
 L. B. ...

Dear Sir,

I am very glad to hear
 from you and hope you are well.

I am very glad to hear
 from you and hope you are
 well.

I am very glad to hear
 from you and hope you are
 well.

I am very glad to hear
 from you and hope you are
 well.

Now I am at home and I am quite well. I am feeling much better, I am sure you would have pleasure in introducing him to me. I am a member of the club and I am quite sure I shall be prepared to be working in the future.

about the possibility of getting a large number of new members.

After I have been to the meeting of the club on the 11th Nov. I am sure that I shall be able to make some useful suggestions.

Yours truly,
G. D. D.

I would give him a copy of the report on the 11th Nov. I am sure that he will be very helpful. I am sure he will be very helpful.

Yours truly,
G. D. D.
